TYLER DONAIS

tdonais010@gmail.com | 978-895-5454 | Winchester, NH, 03470

Summary

Detail-oriented Computer Science and Cybersecurity student focusing on software engineering and information security. Experience in supporting users with classroom technology, equipment operations and ticket response. Strong problem-solving skills and a solid foundation in Python, Java, HTML, CSS, and operating systems. Focused on reliable support, accurate inventory handling, and fast issue resolution.

Skills

- Programming languages (CSS, HTML, Java, Python)
- Collaboration
- Attention to detail
- Analytical thinking
- Operating systems
- Threat mitigation

Experience

University System of New Hampshire
Keene, New Hampshire
Client Services Student Trainee
09/26 - Current

- Provided walk-up support for hardware troubleshooting, software support and technology for commonly used USNH services including desktop and web applications.
- Assisted with real-time classroom technology related issues.
- Facilitated lifecycle and equipment loan operations, including inventory management, collection, and auditing processes.

Education and Training

Keene State College | Keene, NH
Bachelor of Science in Computer Science and Cybersecurity
Expected in 05/2029

- 3.9 GPA
- Member of Morris August Honors Program and its Student Government
- Received KSC STEM and President Scholarships

Portfolio Website

- https://tylerdonais.com/

Awards and Honors

- Awarded an honor cord for mathematics upon graduating high school.
- Made President's and Dean's list for spring and fall 2026 semester.
- Received "Tech King" award for showing excellence in computer knowledge in high school.

Certificates and Licenses

- IBM Cybersecurity Analyst - A 14-course program that provides job-ready skills and methods. This course covers a broad range of topics including but not limited to: forensics, database vulnerabilities, penetration testing, and cloud computing (https://coursera.org/share/ee4e28f01586476cff076b48e67cab99)